Experienced Financial Modeller

Dear Members,

This is a Best Affiliate Forward (BAF®) request. CA Consult is seeking interested and available members to respond.

Client
A client of CA Consult is looking for an experienced Financial Modeller to build and manage a financial model as part of due diligence on a potential target for one of its clients.

The Role
The successful candidate will work with the Practice Leader and the client to build a valuation model and consider a range of valuation scenarios. This will include:

- Building the framework of the model
- Working with the team to understand location, timing, process and rate the drivers of profitability and value
- Managing the development and operation of the model with historical data and forecast data developed by the team
- Preparation of business valuations, based on valuation methodologies
- Completion of scenario and sensitivity analysis.

The successful candidate will be a finance consultant with at least 5 years experience in a finance, accounting or investment banking environment with demonstrated experience in the building of financial models and understanding of valuation methodologies and scenario and sensitivity analysis.

An understanding of financial services, specifically the insurance industry will be beneficial. This role does not require an AFSL. All insurance will be provided by IA services and the client.

Location, Timing, Process and Rate
Location: Sydney location; start immediately. The initial scope is expected to take up to 6 weeks on a part time basis. Further work is to be determined.

Process: Credentials must be lodged by 9am Tuesday, 30 April 2014.

As usual all Credentials will be assessed against specified criteria and the originating Client will make the final candidate selection. If required, the originating Client will conduct interviews.

Rate: Final amount to be negotiated with the originating Client based on experience, but expectations for the gross daily rate are $1,800 to $2,000 ex-GST.

To apply for this BAF® submit your Credentials document in the required format to clientservices@industrialisedadhocracy.com and confirm that you are available, or will make yourself available, for interviews at the client’s discretion.

If you are aware of suitable candidates for the role that may not already be registered with CA Consult but they are a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Australia, please forward this to them and ask them to review our website here www.charteredaccountants.com.au/caconsult

This role does not require an AFSL. All insurance will be provided by IA services and the client.
