The Government’s ‘fair go’ budget for 2015–2016 is simply healthy housekeeping and remains isolated from a long-term plan needed for Australia’s future success. Specifically, the small business measures will help the pistons of the economy stay competitive in the international marketplace. Childcare reforms are on the money. The ‘Netflix Tax’ is right for a tax targeted at products consumed in Australia. On multinationals doing business in Australia who operate outside the Australian tax net, we’re missing the point.
